Scholarship Fund Information

The Great Lakes Male Chorus Association (GLMCA) was established to promote interest in, the performance of, and appreciation for male chorus music.

The Scholarship Program was established to assist promising students of music at the college level and is open to all students meeting eligibility requirements.

Scholarship Awards

The monetary value of awards is based on the funds available annually. For this year, awards range from $750.00 to $1,000.00. Award winners will be notified by letter in early April.

GLMCA Choruses

To be considered for a scholarship award, applicants must individually contact a GLMCA member chorus and perform with or for that chorus. Lists, including contact names and telephone numbers are available on our Web Site: www.glmca.org.

Note: We recommend that you call a local contact person to estimate your chances of being sponsored before beginning the application process.

This application form, with the necessary documents and an audition CD must be received by the Scholarship Chair at the address noted above no later than February 1 in order to be considered.
